

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

(from the book "8,789 Words of Wisdom")

One who cannot tolerate small ills can never accomplish great things.

Know the ropes.

Be patient: Patience can wait for anything.

Make decisions based upon the whole picture.

Your eyes are your windows of your soul.

Sometimes we enter into troubled waters not to drown, but to be cleansed.

Inspire your children.

Avoid blaming people.

Acknowledge accomplishment.

Never let your frustrations get to you.

Help others.

Mind your own business.

Think of others.
